Programs Committee Report

Co-chairs: Amanda Martinez & Steph Moir

- ❖ HPHA holds two major events each year: National Public Health Week in April and the Annual Meeting in the Fall.
- ❖ Both events draw over 100 attendees each with multiple supporters and sponsors.
- ❖ These events are HPHA's major source of income and helped us achieve a balanced budget in 2022.

HPHA Student Fellows Program

- ❖ HPHA offers two paid ($500) fellowships per year. This semester-long internship provides one student with the opportunity to learn about community board service and participate in HPHA's programs.
- ❖ Fall 2022 – Srue Wakuk, pursuing Master's in Public Health (Native Hawaiian and Indigenous Health) at University of Hawaii Manoa
- ❖ Spring 2022 – Karen Perez, graduated in May 2022 with Bachelor of Science in Public Health at Hawaii Pacific University

Fund Development Report

Chair: Bryan Talisayan

- ❖ HPHA had an increase in Organizational members in 2022
- ❖ We held a board challenge to raise funds for the HPHA Student Fellowship, led and matched by long time board member Gerald Ohta
- ❖ First Hawaiian Bank balance is healthy at $44,320 as of Oct 31, 2022
- ❖ The Association has no Liabilities

ARGC Report

By Tenaya Jackman

Report of the Affiliate Representative to the Governing Council of APHA

- ❖ APHA had a successful Annual Meeting and 150th Anniversary Celebration in Boston, Massachusetts, November 6-9. The meeting theme 150 Years of Creating the Healthiest Nation: Leading the Path Towards Equity drew over 13,000 attendees and hundreds of sessions. Both virtual and in-person sessions were available. Many sessions addressed the way forward for public health given the experience of COVID-19, misinformation and equity. Session recordings are available to registered attendees through December 31, 2022.
- ❖ The incoming APHA President is Chris Chanyasulkit, who will make a short presentation at today's meeting. The new President-Elect is Ella Greene-Moton.
- ❖ APHA will hold its next meeting in Atlanta, GA, November 12-15, 2023, Creating the Healthiest Nation: Overcoming Social and Ethical Challenges. Abstracts will be accepted January 2- March 30, 2023.
- ❖ National Public Health Week 2023 is April 3-9. The theme is Centering and Celebrating Cultures in Health.

Please Join a Committee

- ❖ Committee work is vital to carrying out HPHA's mission
- ❖ All HPHA members are invited to join a committee
