OCTOBER 1974

(As amended July 1979, May 1983, May 1984, May 1985, May 1986, May 1992, May 1998, May 1999, June 2008, July 2009, August 2013, October 2017, September 2020)

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

This organization shall be known as the Hawai‘i Public Health Association (HPHA), hereinafter referred to as the Association.

ARTICLE II. MISSION, VISION, & VALUES

The Association’s mission is to promote health in Hawai‘i through leadership, collaboration, education, and advocacy.

The Association’s vision is health equity in Hawai‘i and the Pacific and a strong public health workforce able to effectively respond to public health challenges.

The Association’s values are:

- HPHA believes that health is a basic human right, and consequently seeks to be a voice for social justice.
- HPHA recognizes the value of diversity and that specific problems and solutions arise for poor, rural, and indigenous populations.
- HPHA believes that decisions based on evidence-based principles form the core of public health practice.
- HPHA is determined to be autonomous, independent, and transparent.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. There shall be five (5) classes of members to be designated as Regular Members, Student Members, Senior Members, Honorary Members, and Organizational Members.

Sub-Section A. Regular Members and Regular Lifetime Members

Persons eligible for Regular Membership shall be those professionally engaged in or interested in public health in the State of Hawai‘i. Regular Lifetime Membership shall also be available, for a one-time membership fee at the amount determined by the Board of Directors. Regular Lifetime Members shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as Regular Members but will be paying a one-time due instead of the annual regular membership dues.

Sub-Section B. Student Members

Persons eligible for Student Membership shall be those interested in public health in the State of Hawai‘i who are at least part-time students currently enrolled in academic programs (e.g., high school, college, university). Students enrolled in public health, medicine, nursing, or social work programs in Hawai‘i are eligible for free membership during their first year with the Association.

Sub-Section C. Senior Members

Persons eligible for Senior Membership shall be those interested in public health in the State of Hawai‘i who are fully retired from gainful employment and at least 65 years of age.

Sub-Section D. Honorary Members

Any active member who has rendered long and distinguished service to the Association may be elected to Honorary Membership by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Honorary Members shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as Regular Lifetime Members (i.e., exempt from payment of dues).

Sub-Section E. Organizational Members

Any corporation, organization, or health agency interested in playing an active role in the development of health policies and programs is eligible for Organizational Membership. An Organizational Member may designate representative members (up to two members for Plumeria Level, up to five members for Hibiscus Level, and up to ten members for Maile Level) who shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as Regular Members. Organizational Members must be approved for membership by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Qualifications, dues, manner of election, and rights and privileges of the classes of members, except as specified in this Constitution, shall be established in the bylaws.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. The Officers of the Association shall be a President, a President-Elect, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and the Association's official Affiliate Representative to the Governing Council (ARGC) of the American Public Health Association (APHA).

Section 2. With exception of the ARGC, the Officers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Association for two-year staggered terms (from January to December). The election for President-Elect shall be held annually. The election for Treasurer shall be held in odd years, whereas the election for Secretary shall be held in even years. Per APHA bylaws, the ARGC shall serve a three-year term and elected accordingly. The President and ARGC shall be members of APHA and their membership dues paid by the Association. The Association may financially support the ARGC's attendance to APHA's Annual Meeting, up to $1,000 (expenses related to travel, lodging, and meeting registration), subject to availability of Association funds.

Section 3. The Officers shall have the powers of the Board of Directors to transact business between Board meetings as follows (requiring majority approval of Officers):

- To approve expenditures up to $500;
- To sign documents and contracts on behalf of the Association;
- To delegate decision-making to the committees.

All transactions of the Officers shall be reported in full at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. The Officers shall provide staff oversight of any personnel or contract services and other immediate administrative details.

ARTICLE V. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of:

- The Officers of the Association (5)
- Directors At-Large (4)
- Ex-Officio Directors (vary)

Section 2. Four (4) Directors At-Large shall be elected at the Annual Meeting for two-year terms (from January to December). Directors At-Large must be residents of the State of Hawai'i and a minimum of two shall be from outside of Oahu.

Section 3. Ex-Officio Directors shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as Regular Members, and have the right to vote in Board proceedings. The following individuals (or their designee) shall be invited to serve as Ex-Officio Directors:

- Director of the Hawai‘i State Department of Health
- Director of the Hawai‘i State Department of Human Services
- Director(s) of academic institutions that offer graduate-level public health programs (e.g., Hawai‘i Pacific University, University of Hawai‘i), limited to one representative per institution.
- President(s) of the student clubs/organizations affiliated with the above academic institutions, limited to one representative per institution.
- Others invited by majority vote of the Board of Directors (two-year term, to begin at date of appointment).

ARTICLE VI. MEETINGS

Section 1. There shall be one general meeting of the Association each year at a time and place designated by the Board of Directors and to be known as the Annual Meeting of the Association.

Section 2. Special meetings of the Association may be called by the President or written request of at least ten (10) active members of the Association, provided that the written notice concerning the time, place, and purpose of the meeting is mailed or emailed to all members of the Association at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the proposed meeting. Special meetings must offer phone and/or video conferencing to allow participation from neighbor islands, considering the short-notice nature of this type of meeting. Members unable to attend the meeting may vote by mail, email, or written proxy. As a special meeting, no business may be transacted except that specified in the notice.

ARTICLE VII. AFFILIATION WITH THE AMERICAN PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION (APHA)

Section 1. The Association shall be affiliated with APHA.

Section 2. One member of the Association is to be elected as the Affiliate Representative to the Governing Council (ARGC) of APHA, as established in the Constitution and Bylaws of APHA.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at any Annual Meeting of the Association, provided a copy of the proposed amendments has been sent to each member at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE IX. DISSOLUTION

Section 1. The Association may be dissolved by the two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total membership at a special meeting called for purposes of dissolution.

Section 2. The Association is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to its members and is organized solely for nonprofit purposes. The property, assets, and net income of the Association are irrevocably dedicated to scientific, literary, or education purposes, and no part of the profits or net income shall ever inure to the benefit of any officer or member of the Association, or to the benefit of any individual.

Section 3. On the dissolution of the Association, its assets remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of the Association shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation that is organized and operated exclusively for scientific, literary, or education purposes, and that has established tax exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Committee on Fund Development & Finance shall:

Sub-Section A. Consist of the following officers of the Association and one member-at-large: the Treasurer as Chairperson and the President.

Sub-Section B. Prepare a proposed budget for the operation of the Association and submit it to the Board of Directors for its consideration at its first regular meeting of the fiscal year.

Sub-Section C. Recommend to the Board of Directors any necessary changes in the dues structure of the Association that may be needed to meet the projected obligations of the Association.

Sub-Section D. Have an ad hoc subcommittee on Audit, as needed, consisting of three members, one of which shall be a member-at-large. The Treasurer shall not be a member of this subcommittee.

Section 9. Committee on Legislative & Government Relations

The Committee on Legislative & Government Relations:

Sub-Section A. Shall review proposed Federal, County, and State legislation and make recommendations to the Board of Directors for possible action;

Sub-Section B. Shall make recommendations to the Board of Directors relative to needed public health legislation in the State of Hawai'i for appropriate action;

Sub-Section C. May provide oral or written testimony in support or opposition of any bill as recommended in clause A or B of this section provided the approval of 1) the Legislative & Government Relations Committee Chair and 2) the majority of the Officers (for time-sensitive matters) or the majority of the Board of Directors (for all other matters);

Sub-Section D. Shall have at least one member on the Committee on Legislative & Government Relations who is an Officer of the Association.

Section 10. Committee on Marketing & Public Relations

The Committee on Marketing & Public Relations shall:

Sub-Section A. Interpret the objectives and activities of the Association to other pertinent groups and to the public;

Sub-Section B. Assist in publicizing the program of the Annual Meeting to the membership;

Sub-Section C. Publish newsletters and information at intervals to inform the membership of developments in the Association and in public health matters.

ARTICLE VI. QUORUM

Section 1. A quorum at any meeting of the Association shall consist of not less than thirty-five (35) individuals or not less than twenty-five percent (25%)—whichever value is lower—of active members of the Association, at least two of which shall be officers of the Association.

Section 2. A quorum of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall consist of not less than half of the currently filed board seats.

Section 3. Quorum may be met by representatives appearing in-person, by conference call, teleconference or through any interactive technology. Members may also submit votes via proxy.

ARTICLE VII. RULES OF ORDER

Business sessions of the Association and Board of Directors shall be conducted with the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any Annual Meeting of the Association, provided a copy of the proposed amendments has been sent to each member at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Meeting.

Section 2. The Bylaws may also be amended between Annual Meetings by a two-thirds vote of the members responding to a mailed or emailed ballot, allowing them fifteen (15) calendar days within which to return the ballot, provided, however, that changes proposed in a ballot shall have been approved by the Board of Directors.
