

Pediatric Clinic Parenting Project Coordinator

Coordinate the planning, development, piloting and evaluation of clinic-based interventions to promote nurturing and attachment between parents and children, with primary focus on parents of children ages 0 to 3 during well-child visits. Required experience: At least 3 years of experience working with young children and parents; Project management and planning; Ability to work with multi-cultural staff and community populations; Bachelor's degree in human services with emphasis in health, early childhood development, social work or education required; Graduate degree preferred. Please contact jobs@kqv.net for an application and to submit a resume.